Oklahoma City Community College Capitol Hill Center
Oklahoma City Community College Capitol Hill Center is the one of the few bilingual community technology centers in the state of Oklahoma. It opened in the fall of 2000 with a mission to provide access to education through computers and technology for all individuals living within the Capitol Hill area. The Center provides internet access and computer training for community members of all ages. Classes are offered in basic and intermediate computer applications, English as a second language, Internet, PowerPoint, Office Skills, GED and job readiness. Instruction is offered in Spanish and English with some classes in Korean. The Center is located at 123 S.W. 25th, Ste. 100, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 73109. Please call (405) 272-5140 for more information.

Cultural Programs

Cultural Programs is a Division within the OCCC Office of Community Development which aims to enrich the lives of students, staff, and the south Oklahoma City community by fostering a thriving arts environment through events and arts education activities. Engagement in the performing and visual arts, community development, and arts education are key elements found at the core of its current programs. Cultural Programs’ primary functions include booking and promotion of touring attractions (i.e., OCCC Performing Arts Series); the administration and rentals of OCCC’s theaters and Inasmuch Foundation Gallery spaces; the presentation of Arts Festival Oklahoma; and booking, mounting and promotion of touring gallery exhibits.

Touring Attractions (Performing Arts Series)
- OCCC offers educational and entertaining concerts by professional touring performing artists each academic year (September – April).
- Performances are ticketed events, open to the public. A limited number of complimentary student tickets to all attractions booked and promoted by Cultural Programs are available upon request, through the OCCC Box Office located inside the Visual and Performing Arts Center. Most events allow two complimentary tickets per student I.D. Visit http://www.occc.edu/pas for a schedule of upcoming eligible events, or to purchase tickets. Follow us on Twitter @occcultural or Facebook www.facebook.com/OCCCulturalprograms.

Inasmuch Foundation Gallery
- The Inasmuch Foundation Gallery features temporary exhibitions that change approximately five times each year. Two of the seven exhibitions feature the work of OCCC students. The remaining exhibits are presented by the Office of Cultural Programs, and include exhibitions produced by community arts organizations, shows featuring the work of local artists, and touring exhibitions. Admission is free. The Inasmuch Foundation Gallery is located inside the Visual and Performing Arts Center. Visit http://www.occc.edu/cp/currentgallery.html

Arts Festival Oklahoma
- Arts Festival Oklahoma is a three-day arts festival held annually each Labor Day weekend on the campus of OCCC. It features the work of over 120 fine artists, an international food court, performances by community performing arts groups, and headline entertainment. Visit http://www.occc.edu/af0 for more information, follow us on Twitter @occccafo, or on Facebook www.facebook.com/OCCCAFO

Theater Rentals
- OCCC Cultural Programs administers and operates two theatrical venues: The Bruce Owen Theater, housed inside the College’s main building, is a small, intimate proscenium theater that seats 285. The Visual and Performing Arts Center Theater is a large state-of-the-art proscenium theater that seats 1,049, split between an orchestra and balcony level. Both venues are available for rent when not in use by the College. For theater rental inquiries, please contact Richard Charnay, Assistant Director of Cultural Programs, at (405) 682-1611 ext. 7396, or at richard.j.charnay@occc.edu.
