

A.S.E. Electrical Systems

AT 2224

DEGREE PROGRAM COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

The student will apply competencies in battery, starting, charging, lighting, driver information, horn, wiper/washer, and accessory systems. Additionally, the student will demonstrate principles of electricity, magnetism, voltage and current regulation and basic circuitry as applied in automotive electrical systems to aid in general diagnosis of automotive electrical problems.

PREREQUISITES?

MATH 0103 or adequate math placement and ENGL 0203 or adequate placement score, or by meeting determined placement measures.

CREDIT HOURS

4