

GM Suspension and Steering

AT 2304

DEGREE PROGRAM COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

This course is an application of basic competencies in steering systems, suspension systems and wheel alignment diagnosis, adjustment and repair. The student will further discuss and demonstrate an understanding of wheel and tire diagnosis and repair on current General Motors vehicles.

PREREQUISITES?

MATH 0103 or adequate math placement and ENGL 0203 or adequate placement score, or by meeting determined placement measures. Special admission procedures required.

CREDIT HOURS

4