

Child Health, Safety and Nutrition

CD 2353

DEGREE PROGRAM COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

This course explores the identification and implementation of best practices for health, safety, and nutrition of young children in a variety of early childhood settings. The laboratory component of the course must be completed at off-campus approved sites. Students must meet pre-laboratory requirements.

PREREQUISITES?

ENGL 0203, adequate placement score, or by meeting determined placement measures.

CREDIT HOURS

3