

Introduction to Computing Technologies

CS 1153

DEGREE PROGRAM COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Students will learn fundamental concepts of computing technologies. Topics will include computer hardware, operating systems, application software, networking, information security and privacy, information systems, program development, database management systems, social aspect of computing technologies, and cloud computing.

PREREQUISITES?

ENGL 0203, adequate placement score, or by meeting determined placement measures; MATH 0103 or adequate math placement.

CREDIT HOURS

3