

Death, Dying, and Grief

PSY 2163

DEGREE PROGRAM COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Students will demonstrate an understanding of death, dying, and grief from three perspectives: The medical and legal perspective in American society; the human perspective, including how people die, caregiving, suicide, and funeral rituals; and the perspective of death related to other losses, including grief and coping strategies.

PREREQUISITES?

ENGL 0203, adequate placement score, or by meeting determined placement measures

CREDIT HOURS

3