"The Panhandle as a Passageway."

With Sara Jane Richter and Tom Lewis

Thursday April 5 at 2 p.m. in the College Union

The Panhandle of Oklahoma has long been overlooked as a "real" part of the state. Many people "downstate" do not realize what a unique and valuable piece of real estate the panhandle is. The presentation offers a historical and often humorous look at the land nobody wanted but everyone - dinosaurs, soldiers, traders, buffalo, outlaws, truckers, and snowbirds - traversed. Not many people have opted to stay in "No Man's Land" through the ages, but the region has served as a thoroughfare for state, national, and international travelers.

Sara Jane Richter and Tom Lewis are both professors at Oklahoma Panhandle State University in Goodwell. This lecture is preview of just some of the events Student Life has planned for the Oklahoma Centennial.
