With Fulbright Scholar Dr. Ilhan Uzgel

Tuesday Feb. 13 at 2:30 p.m. CU1&2

Presented by Social Sciences and Student Life

Dr. Uzgel is an Associate Professor, and Deputy Head of Department of International Relations, in Political Science, at Ankara University in Turkey. His presentation will cover Turkey's political and social history as well as an overview of U.S. and Turkey relations.

"Oklahoma Author Rilla Askew"

Author of "Fire in Beulah"

Monday Feb. 19 at 2 p.m. CU1&2

Presented by Social Sciences, The OCCC Library and Student Life

As modern day Oklahoma confronts the tragedy of the 1921 Tulsa Race Riot, a native daughter lends her voice. Rilla Askew's novel is the story of Althea Whiteside, an oil wildcatter's high-strung white wife, and her enigmatic black maid, Graceful. They share a complex connection during the tense days of the Oklahoma oil rush. Askew is a two-time Oklahoma Book Award winner. Fire in Beulah received the 2002 American Book Award.

"Klan-Destine Relations"

With Race Relations Expert Daryl Davis

Thursday Feb. 22 at 2 p.m. CU1&2

Presented by Student Life

Daryl Davis has received acclaim for his book, Klan-Destine Relationships and his work in race relations from many respected sources including: CNN, CNBC, Good Morning America, The Learning Channel, National Public Radio, The Washington Post, The Washington Times, The Baltimore Sun, The American Ethical Union and The Washington Ethical Society. Filled with exciting encounters and amusing anecdotes, Daryl Davis' impassioned lectures leaves an audience feeling empowered to confront their own prejudices and overcome their fears.
