Campus Voices: Educational Lecture Series

Lecture: Oil vs. Wilderness: An Arctic Exploration

The "Oil Versus Wilderness" program has been updated for 2007 to show the findings from an expedition Jon led, with the world famous conservationist, Dr. George Schaller, to study climate change in northern Alaska. As a veteran of a half dozen trips into the remote, 19-million-acre Arctic National Wildlife Refuge -bearing witness to the incredible caribou migration and a cornucopia of wildlife found nowhere else on the continent Jon shares both slides and film, while telling an educational and insightful story about the potential cultural/environmental impacts of drilling contrasted with the economic benefits of oil development, and complicated by global warming.
