OCCC FOUNDATION RECEIVES $50,000 GIFT FROM THURMAN FAMILY

The Oklahoma City Community College Foundation Board of Trustees and College President Paul Sechrist honored the Thurman Family (Randy, Pati and their son, Levi) this past summer for their $50,000 gift to the College Library.

OCCC used the donation to purchase 40 computers for the Library for student and community use, plus used additional funds for other library projects.

"We are very grateful to the Thurmans for investing in the future of our students and this community," said President Sechrist. "They understand the importance of education and its impact on economic development."

Randy is an alumnus of OCCC; his wife, Pati, is active in community organizations; and their son, Levi, is a fourth grader in elementary school.

- Did you know you can visit the Oklahoma City Community College Foundation website and make a donation online? www.occc.edu/foundation. We also accept credit cards for your convenience. If you'd like to donate with your credit card, please call the Foundation office at (405)682-7591.
- Also, remember the Oklahoma City Community College Foundation in your Planned Giving efforts. For additional information on bequests, life insurance policies and other opportunities, please call the Foundation office at (405)682-7591.

MESSAGE FROM FOUNDATION PRESIDENT – P. B. ODOM III

A special thank you to the generous donors who gave to the Oklahoma City Community College Foundation this past year. Your support and commitment are an inspiration to us. Your gifts truly assist our students in achieving their career goals. Once again, thank you for making a difference at Oklahoma City Community College!

COLLEGE EMPLOYEES GIVE $25,000

Oklahoma City Community College employees gave close to $25,000 this past year for special projects and scholarship funds. President Odom said, "we are proud of the generous support demonstrated each year by the College employees. They set a great example for this community."

GAMEL SCHOLARSHIP ESTABLISHED FALL SEMESTER

The Oklahoma City Community College Foundation received a $25,000 gift this past fall for the establishment of the Jean and Ralph Gamel Scholarship. Retired Norman businessman, Ralph Gamel, established the scholarship in memory of his wife, Jean, who passed away in May 2006.

This fall semester, ten OCCC students each received a $1,000 scholarship for their academic needs. "We are very appreciative of the Gamel Scholarship, as it allows the College to assist numerous students in their academic endeavors," said OCCC President Paul Sechrist.

The remainder of the scholarship fund will be awarded to students this Spring '07 Semester.

THANK YOU TO OUR 2005-2006 DONORS!

Oklahoma City Community College Foundation is grateful for our donors. The gifts provide scholarships and fund projects for Oklahoma City Community College students and this community. Thank you to all!
