

Spanish in Mexico 2003
International Studies 1163/2063
July 26-August 3, 2003

Have you always dreamed of exploring the cities and monuments of ancient peoples, walking through busy markets filled with freshly picked coffee beans, chocolate, cinnamon, other foods and spices? Do you appreciate the language, traditions, art and architecture of the aggregate that is modern Mexico? Have you always wanted to experience exotic, faraway places but the time was never right or you never had anyone with whom to share the adventure? Now is the time!

Join us for the experience of a lifetime:
Spanish in Mexico – Oaxaca / Huatulco

 9 days and 8 nights

 3 hours college credit

 Spanish in an authentic environment

Study the culture and language of modern Mexico in the heart of her most indigenous area.

Visit Monte Alban, the ancient city fortress of the Zapotecs, the archaeological remains of a powerful culture and people.

Marvel at the architecture of fabled Mitla and the immense city and ballcourt of Yagul.

Experience the natural wonder of the ancient Tule Tree.

View majestic mountains and stroll the beautiful beaches of Huatulco.
