Dana Tuley-Williams is back at work after being on maternity leave. She and the baby are doing fine. If you need any materials let her know.

A new division representative is needed for the Faculty Development Committee. The process for election will be conducted via email to allow Dr. Sechrist the most time possible to speak with the division.

Nancy thanked everyone for supporting her in bringing in a controversial speaker last week. There was a great response to the speaker.

The Tuition Fee Waivers are for Summer, and the deadline for applying for one has passed.

The month of April was a bad month for deaths in the families of faculty. Dr. Buxton expressed appreciation for the kindness of everyone.

Dr. Buxton and Dr. Sechrist recognized Nancy for her efforts to bring Bill Baird to our campus.

Dr. Sechrist was a guest speaker to discuss renovation plans for the division. He discussed the overall vision for the future and renovation plans. He reassured faculty to the inclusion of Social Sciences in the long range renovation and building plans. He also shared with faculty that Dr. Buxton had been making requests on behalf of the division since September. The immediate need for classroom space and limited Section 13 funding postponed the renovation of Social Sciences office space. Social Sciences is next on the list for Section monies for office renovation and/or relocation. The carpet will be replaced in the Social Sciences wing as soon as funding is available. Dr. Sechrist recommended meetings be established with Stu Harvey to discuss both short term and long term plans. When asked about the health conditions of 1C1A and 1C1B he again mentioned it is a situation that he and Dr. Buxton continue to discuss.
