

4 Year Summary of GED and TOEFL Examinations FY2006 – FY2009

Test of English as a Foreign Language

The Test of English as a Foreign Language is an exam designed to show how well students for whom English is a second language can read, write and understand English. Oklahoma City Community College offers the institutional TOEFL, which is designed for students seeking admission to the College.

	FY06		FY07		FY08		FY09
	Taken	Passed	Taken	Passed	Taken	Passed	Taken	Passed
TOEFL	302	96(32%)	368	116(32%)	281	88(31%)	359	123(34%)

General Education Development

Oklahoma City Community College houses both the instruction and testing segments of the General Education Development program. The GED exam is administered in accordance with Oklahoma Department of Education policies. Although the number varies from year to year, the GED program launches an estimated 15% of the GED graduates into college study.

	FY06		FY07		FY08		FY09
	Taken	Passed	Taken	Passed	Taken	Passed	Taken	Passed
GED	996	597(60%)	1056	635(60%)	1119	658(59%)	1019	573(56%)