

Complete College OCCC

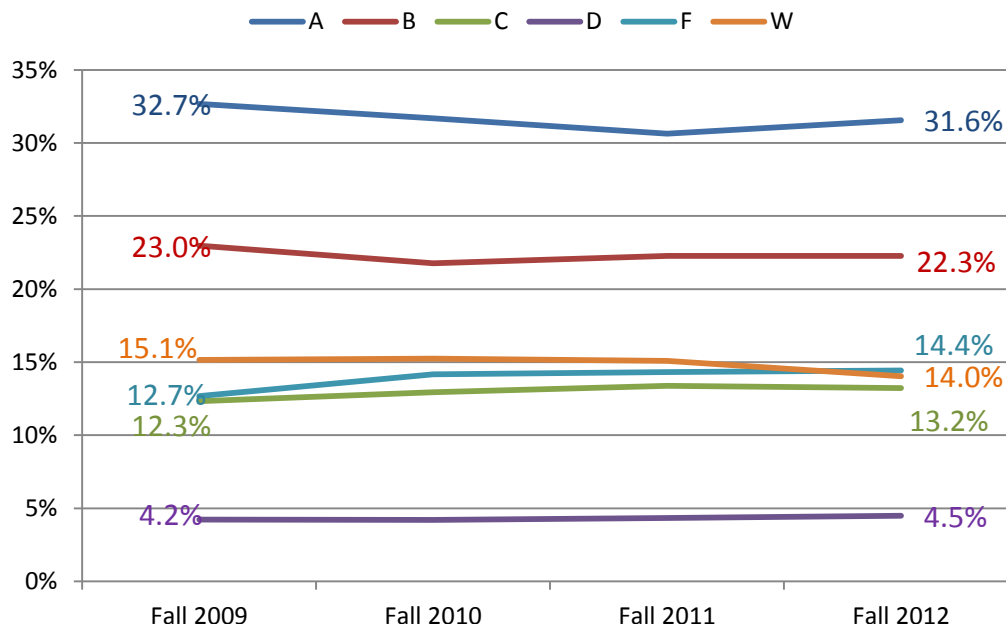

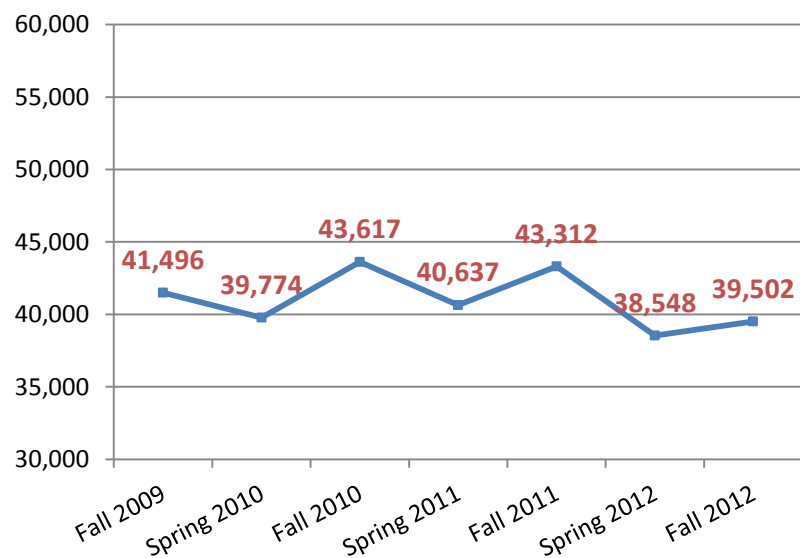

Course Success Updates from Fall 2012 Semester

Office of Institutional Effectiveness
February 19th, 2013

Presentation By:
Matt Eastwood
matthew.a.eastwood@occc.edu

Fall 2012 – College Wide Course Enrollment/Grade Statistics

Total Fall/Spring Enrollment Trend

- ✓ The overall success rate (students earning an A, B, C or S) during the fall 2012 semester was 65.9%. This is equal to 26,025 of the 39,502 enrollments.
- ✓ The overall enrollments had a -8.8% change from fall 2011 to fall 2012 and a 4.8% change as compared to fall 2009.
- ✓ The overall pass rate (success rate + D grades) during the fall 2012 semester was 71.5%.

Fall 2012 – College Wide Grade Point Averages

Fall 2012 Enrollment Level Compositions

■ O Level (Developmental Only)

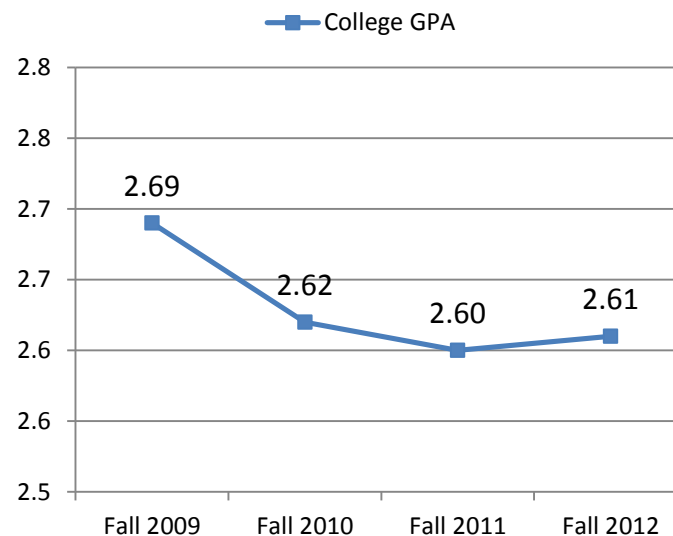

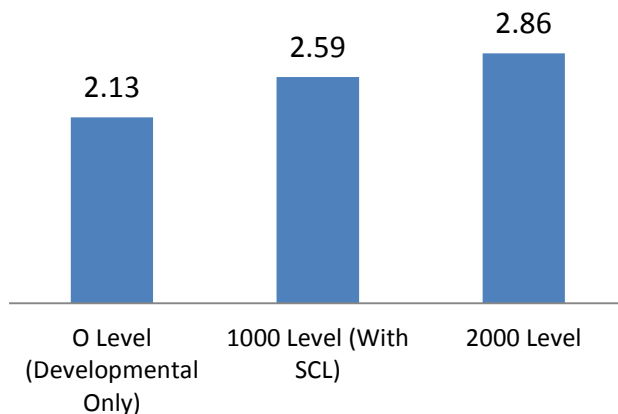

■ 1000 Level (With SCL)

■ 2000 Level

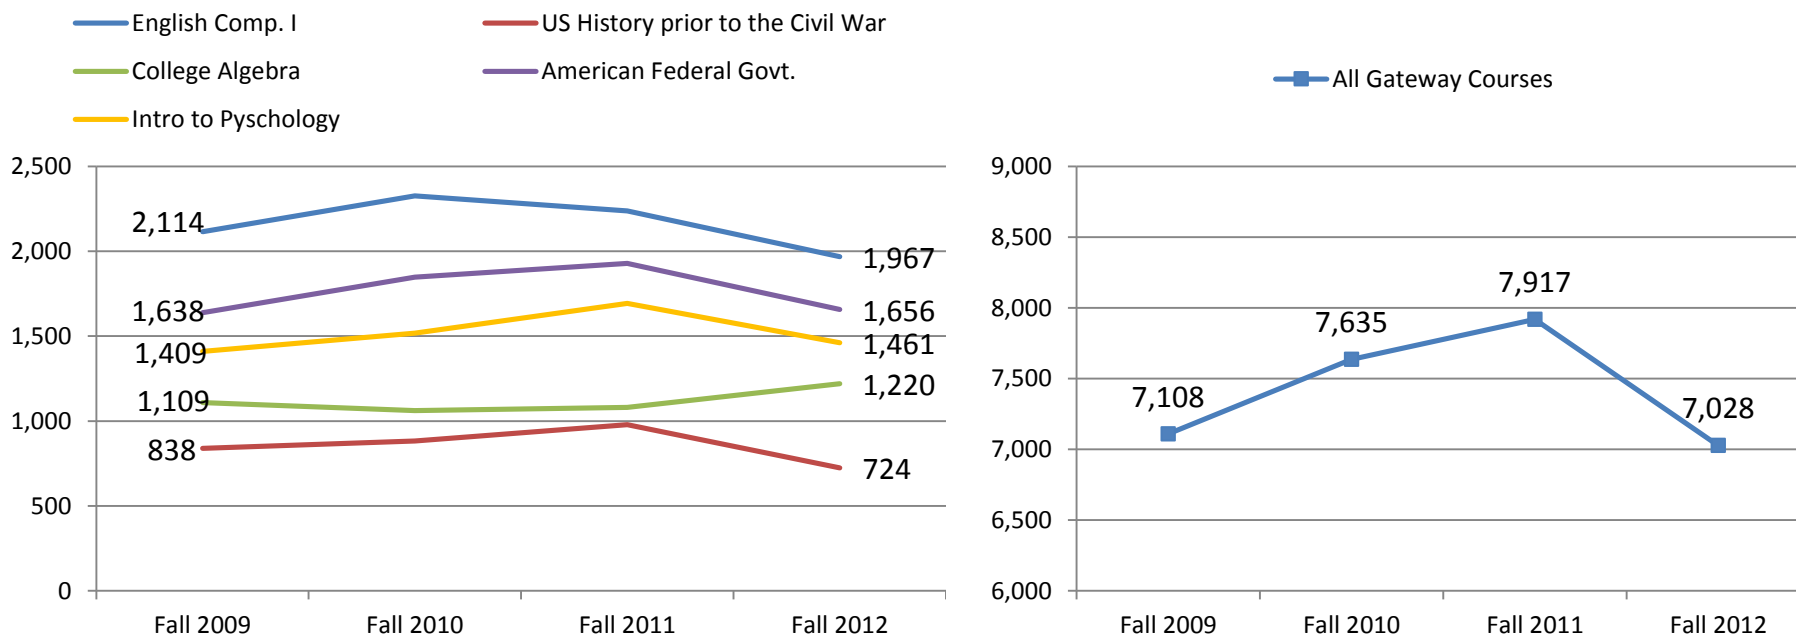

Fall 2012 Average GPA

■ Fall 2012 Average GPA

- ✓ The average GPA for all fall 2012 OCCC enrollments for the fall 2012 term was 2.61.

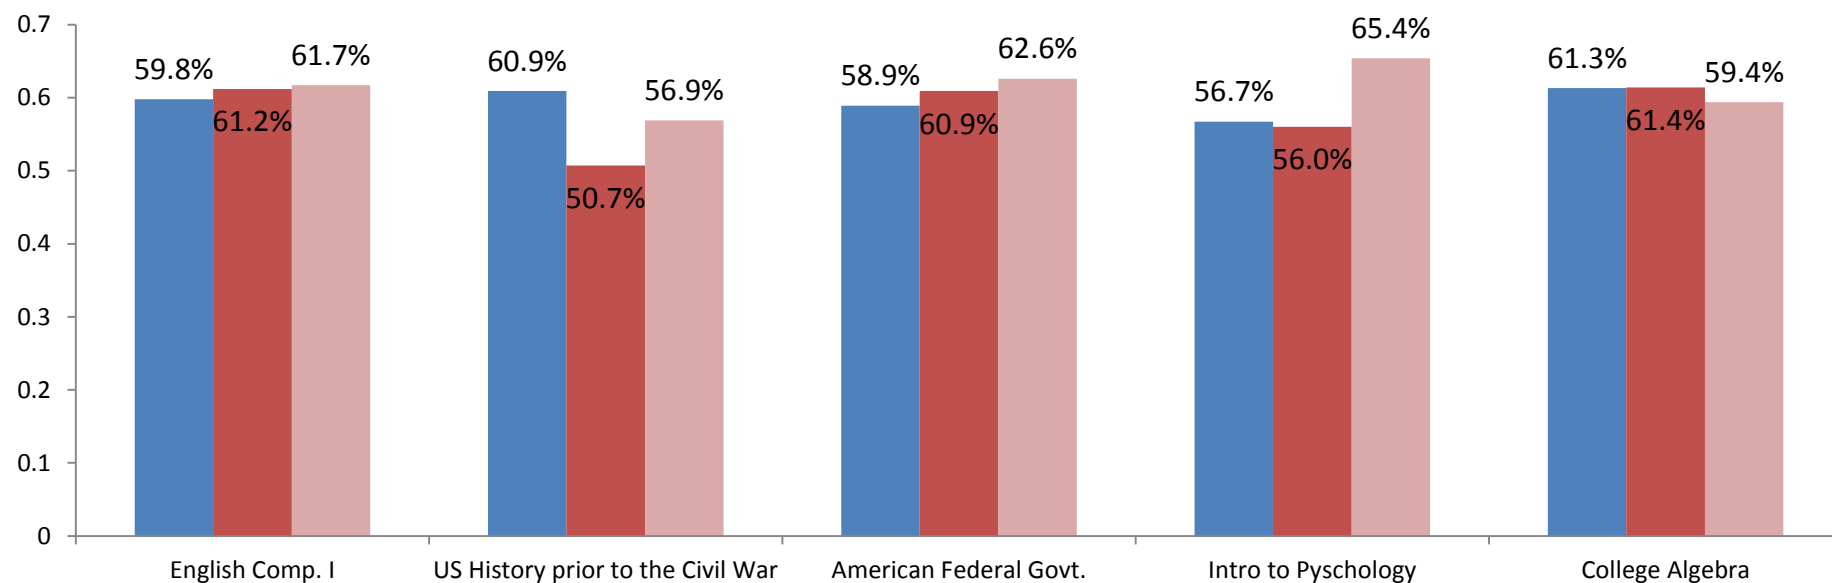

Student Enrollment Rates – Summary of Large Gateway Courses Fall to Fall Overall Composite of Students Enrolled and Earning an Official Grade

- ✓ Overall enrollments in the gateway courses experienced a -11.2% change between fall 2011 and fall 2012. The OCCC campus as a whole had a -8.8% decline in enrollments for the same period.
- ✓ For fall 2012, the sum of gateway course enrollments represented roughly 18% of all course enrollments (with grades) that occurred during the fall 2012 term (Total campus enrollments = 39,502).

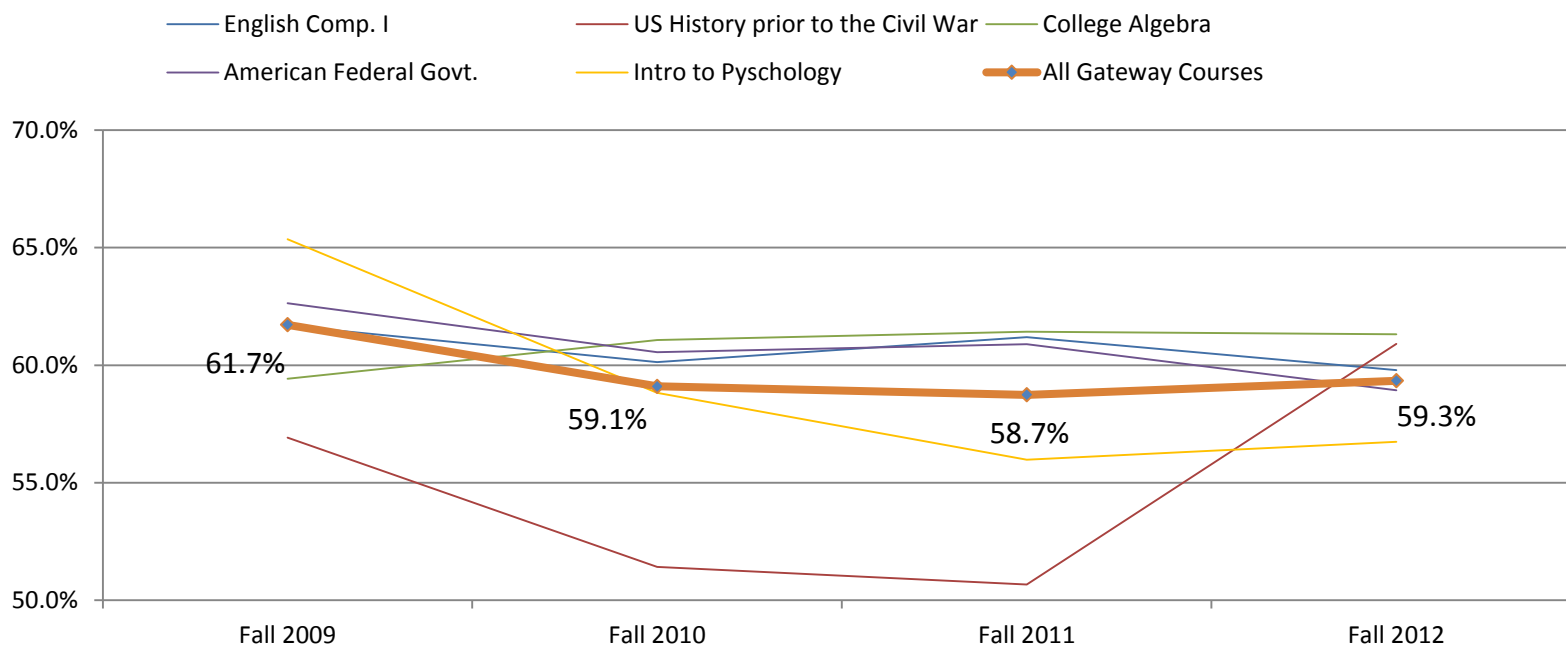

Student Success Rates – Fall Gateway Courses Course Percentages of Students receiving an A, B, C or S

■ Fall 2012 ■ Fall 2011 ■ Fall 2009

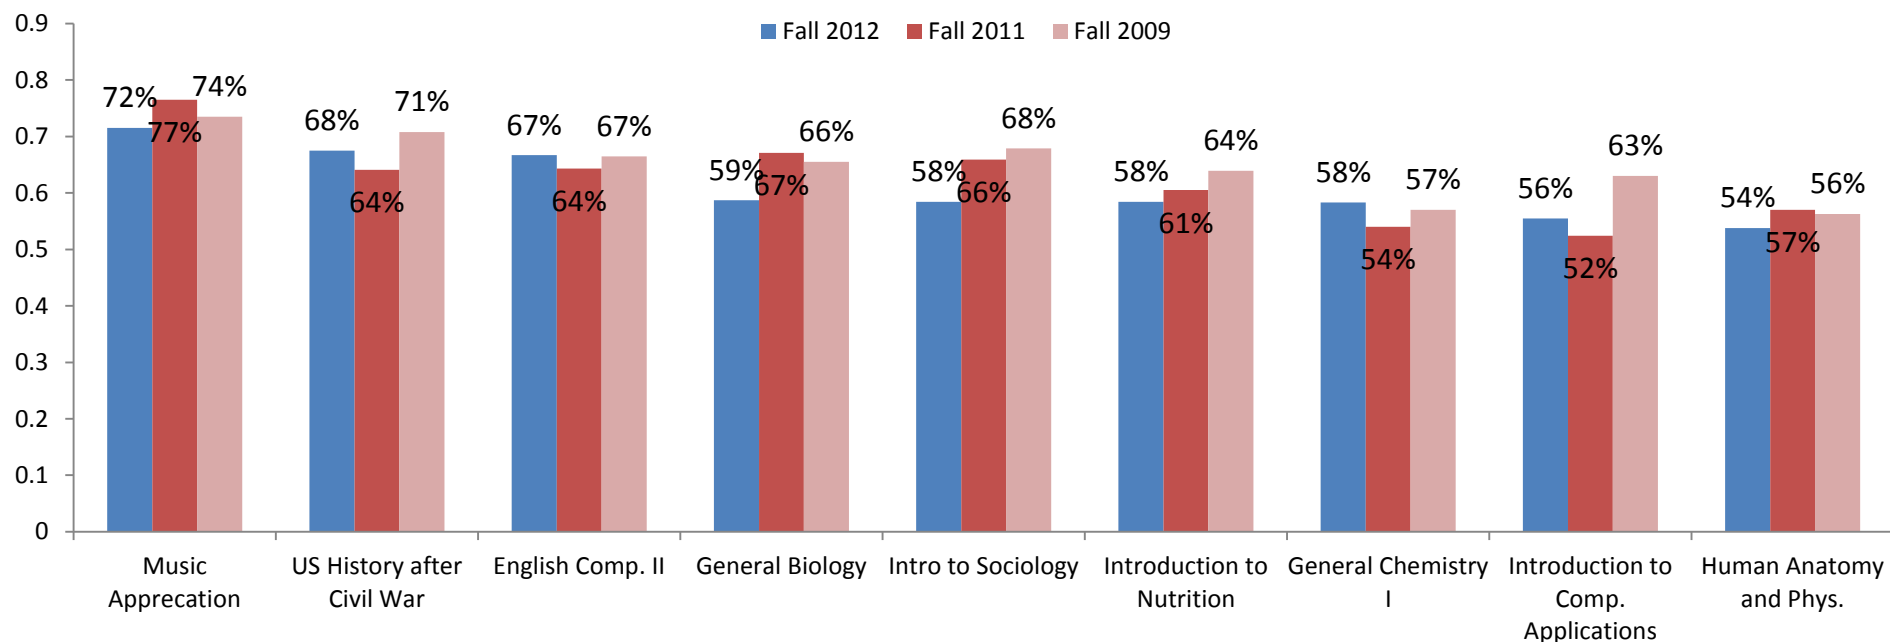

- ✓ 2 of the 5 large 1000 level gateway courses experienced an increase in their overall course success rates. The same ration holds true when comparing against Fall figures from three years prior.
- ✓ 3 of the 5 large 1000 level gateway courses met the college's FY2012 stated goal of achieving at or above a 59% success rate within these courses.

Student Success Rates – Summary of Gateway Education Courses Overall Composite of Students Receiving an A, B, C or S

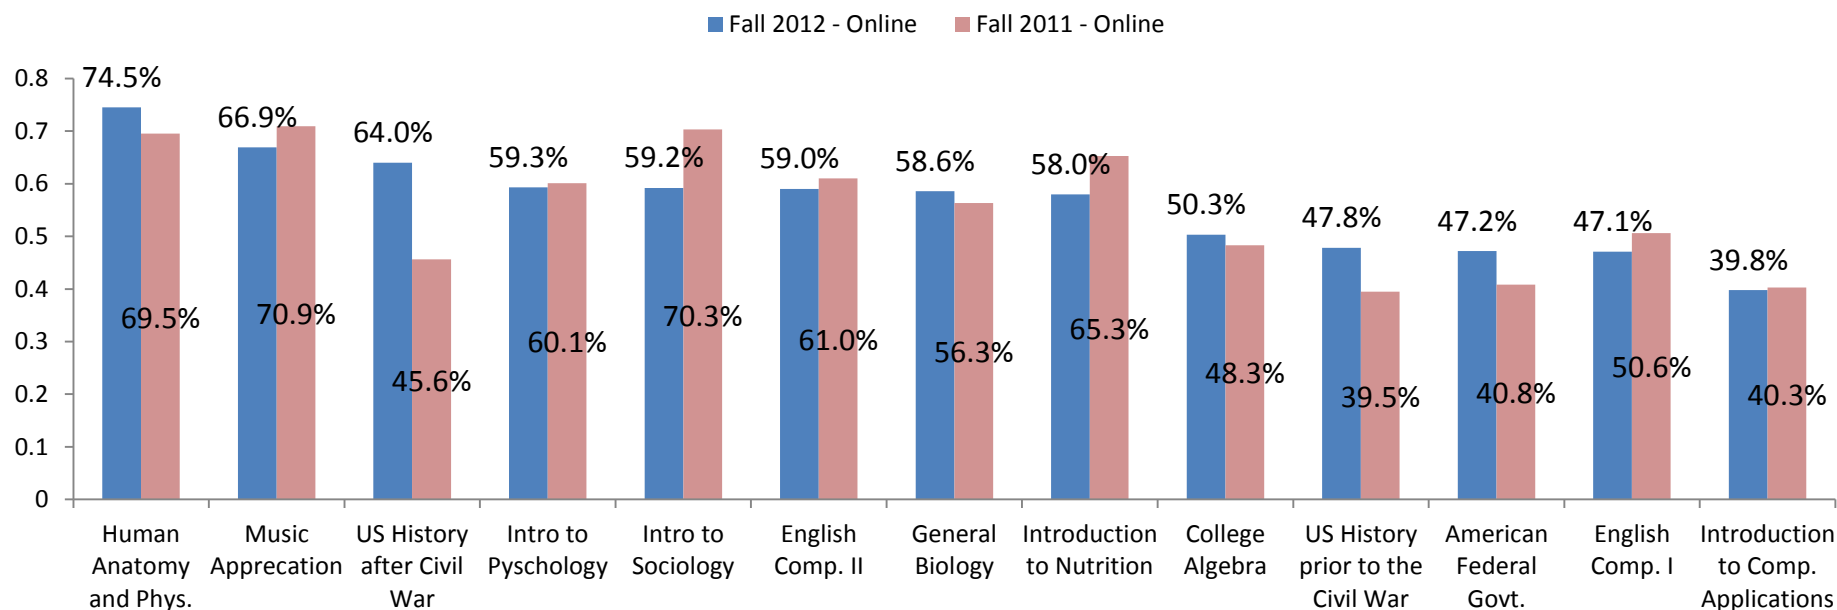

- ✓ After three consecutive years of declining success rates for gateway courses on the whole, overall success rates this last fall semester edged slightly upwards by 0.6% points.

Student Success Rates – Other Large Gen Ed Courses Course Percentages of Students receiving an A, B, C or S

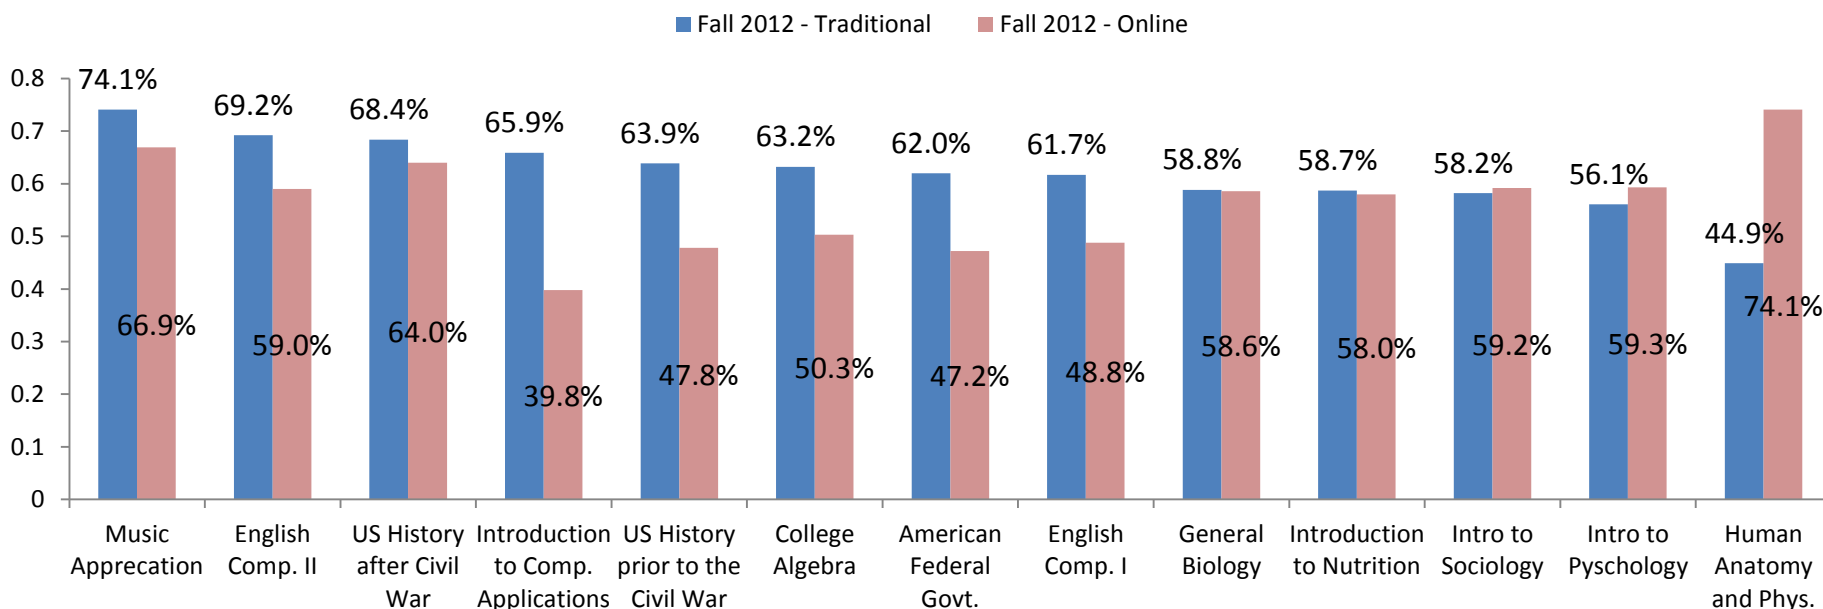

- ✓ 4 of the 9 non-gateway large general education classes increased their overall course success rates from last fall.
- ✓ Only 2 of the 9 non-gateway large general education classes increased their overall course success rates from fall 2009.
- ✓ In total, only 6 of the 14 gateway and other large general education courses had a yearly increase in student success since last fall.

Student Success Rates – Summary of Large General Education Classes with Online Options Comparisons of Students Receiving an A, B, C or S (Fall 2011 to Fall 2012 Differences)

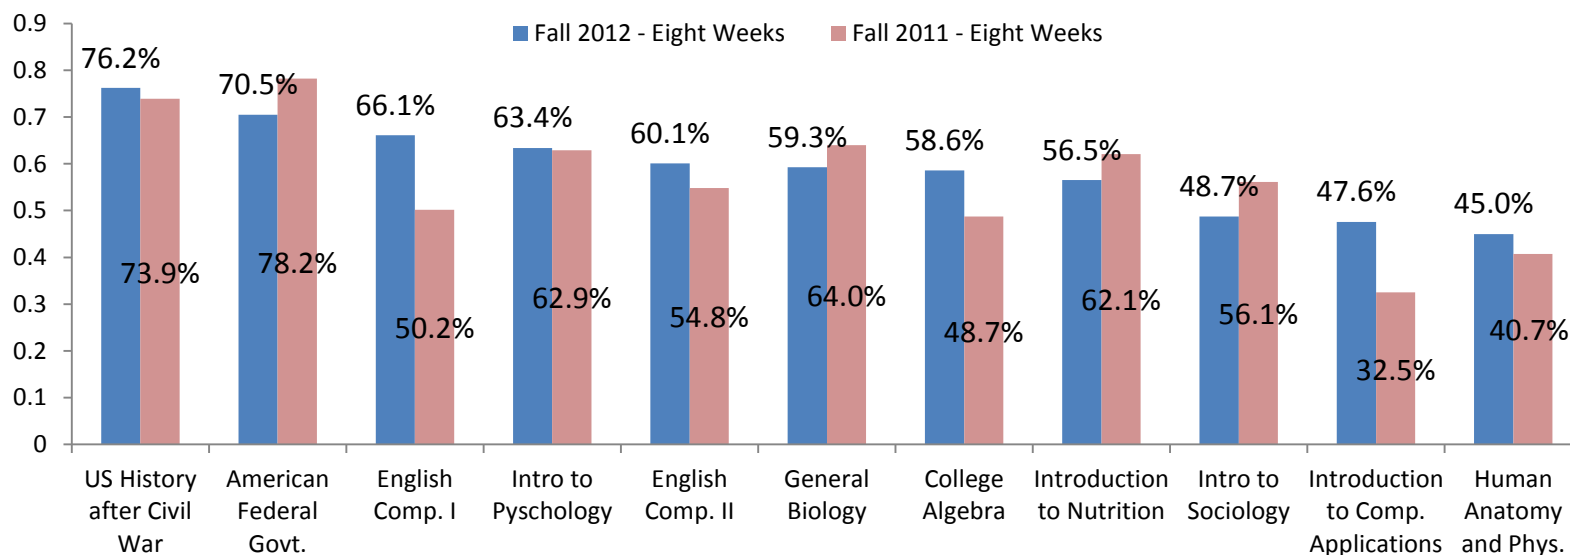

- ✓ 6 of the 13 large General Education courses with a significant online section options had higher success rates for sections as compared to their online offerings for fall 2011.
- ✓ The average of the general education courses' online success rate for fall 2012 was 56.3% compared to 55.3% for online only sections in fall 2011.

Student Success Rates – Summary of Large General Education Classes with Online Options Comparisons of Students Receiving an A, B, C or S (Fall 2012 Traditional vs. Online Course Sections)

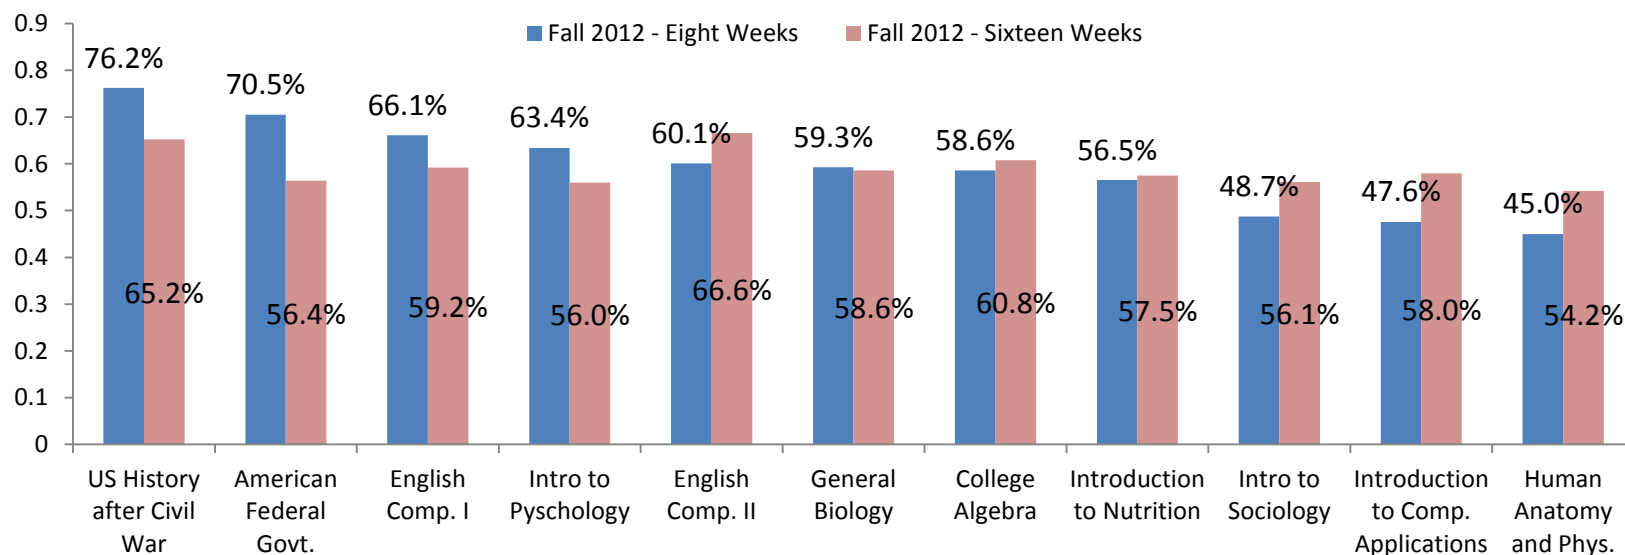

- ✓ 3 of the 13 large general education courses with a significant online section options had higher success rates for online sections as compared to their traditional (in-class) offerings for fall 2012. The same ratio in fall 2011 was 5 of the 13 large courses.
- ✓ The average of the general education courses' online success rate for fall 2012 was 56.5% compared to 61.9% for traditional course sections for the same term.

Student Success Rates – Summary of Large General Education Classes with 8 Week Options Comparisons of Students Receiving an A, B, C or S (Fall 2011 to Fall 2012 Differences)

- ✓ 7 of the 11 large general education courses with 8 week options had higher success rates for fall 2012 when compared to the prior fall term.
- ✓ The average of the general education courses' 8 week only success rate for fall 2012 was 59.3% compared to 56.8% for 8 week only sections in fall 2011.

Student Success Rates – Summary of Large General Education Classes with 8 Week Options Comparisons of Students Receiving an A, B, C or S (Fall 2012 Differences)

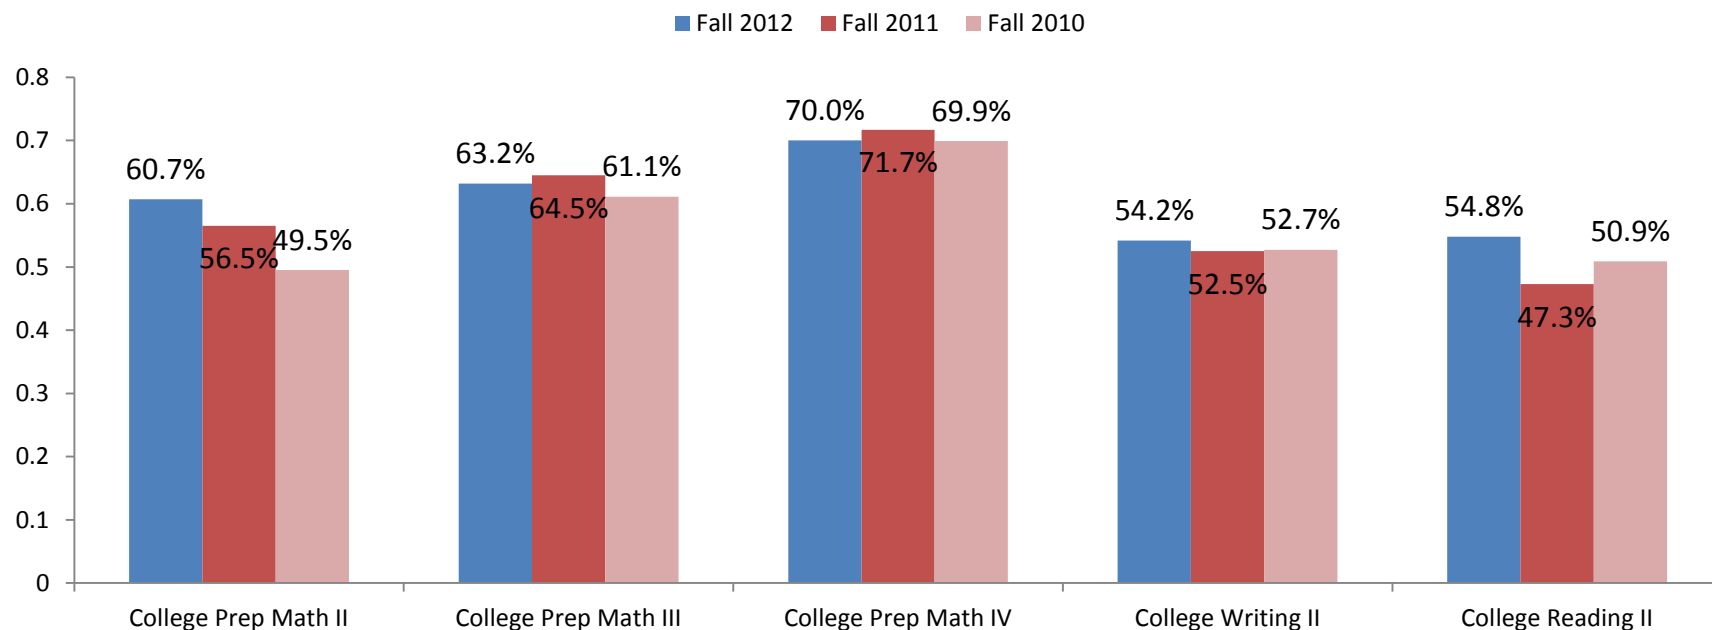

- ✓ 5 of the 11 large general education courses with a significant 8 and 16 week offering had higher success rates for the condensed course option. This compares to 7 of the same 11 courses having higher 8 week success rates in for Fall 2011.
- ✓ The average of the general education courses' 16 weeks only success rates for fall 2012 was 60.4% and 61.1% for fall 2011.

Student Success Rates – Summary of Gateway and Other Large General Education Courses Fall to Fall Comparisons of students receiving an A, B, C or S

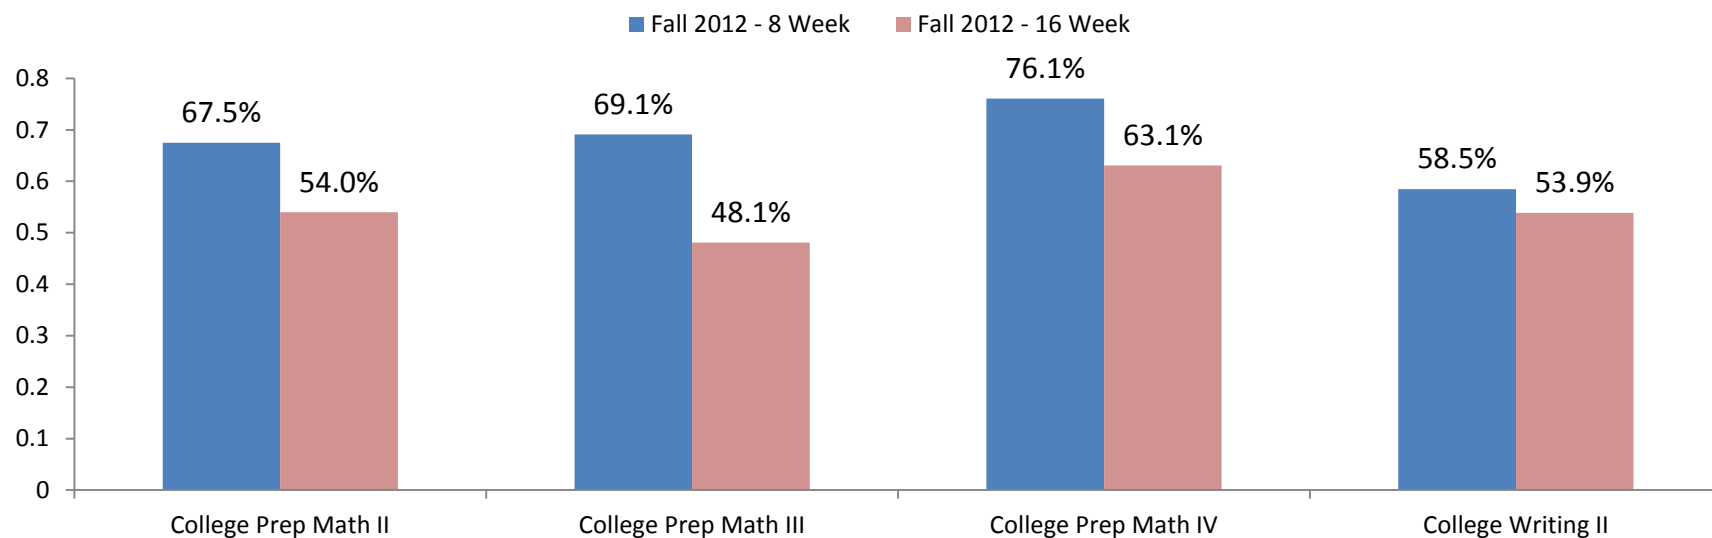

- ✓ The average course success rate for all major general education classes was 60.5%. This is 0.4% (percentage points) lower than in fall 2011 and 2.1% (percentage points) lower than in fall 2009.
- ✓ 6 of the 14 general education courses increased their overall success rates when compared to the same semester last fall.
- ✓ As compared to fall 2009, only 2 of the 14 general education courses have witnessed an increase in overall student success rates.
- ✓ U.S. History prior to the Civil War had both the largest single year-over-year increase in student success rates, as well as for increases over the last three years (fall 2009).
- ✓ Overall online success rates increased very slightly compared to last fall.
- ✓ Little changes occurred in 8 vs. 16 week course success rates when compared to last fall. Most success differences between 8 and 16 week course formats are course dependent.

Student Success Rates – Summary of Large Developmental Education Courses Fall to Fall Comparisons of Students Receiving an A, B, C or S

- ✓ 3 of 5 large developmental courses increased their overall student success rates as compared to last fall.
- ✓ All three of the largest developmental math courses has increased their success rates over a two year fall-to-fall period.
- ✓ Both large reading and writing courses have increased in student success rates when compared to two prior years.

Student Success Rates – Summary of Large Developmental Courses with 8 Week Options
vs. 16 Week Options
Comparisons of Students Receiving an A, B, C or S
(Fall 2012 Differences)

- ✓ All four courses with substantial 8 week offerings had higher success rates than did the 16 week offerings during the 2012 term.

Student Success Rates – Summary of Success in College and Life Courses Fall to Fall Comparisons of students receiving an A, B, C or S

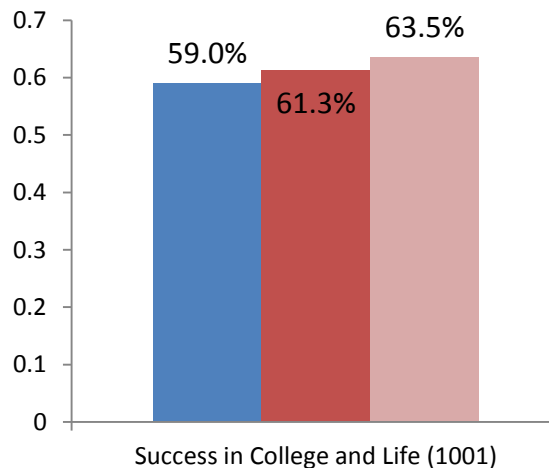

All Course Sections

■ Fall 2012 ■ Fall 2011 ■ Fall 2009

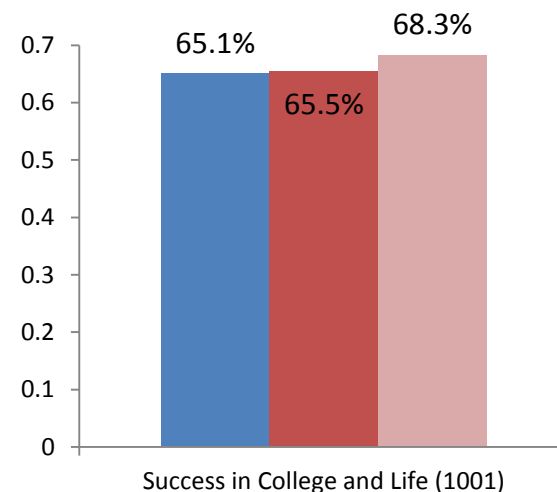

Online Only

■ Fall 2012 ■ Fall 2011 ■ Fall 2009

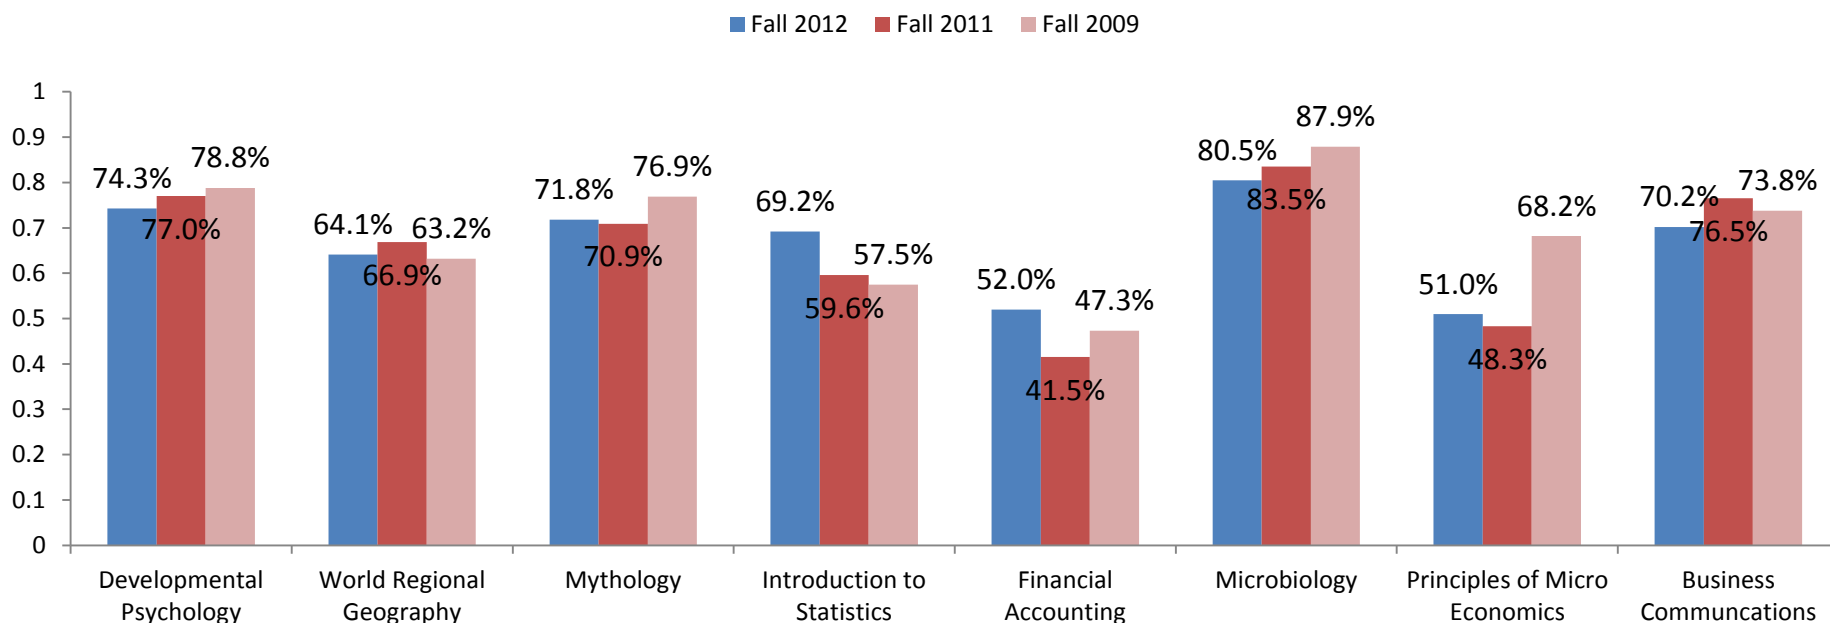

8 Weeks Only

■ Fall 2012 ■ Fall 2011 ■ Fall 2009

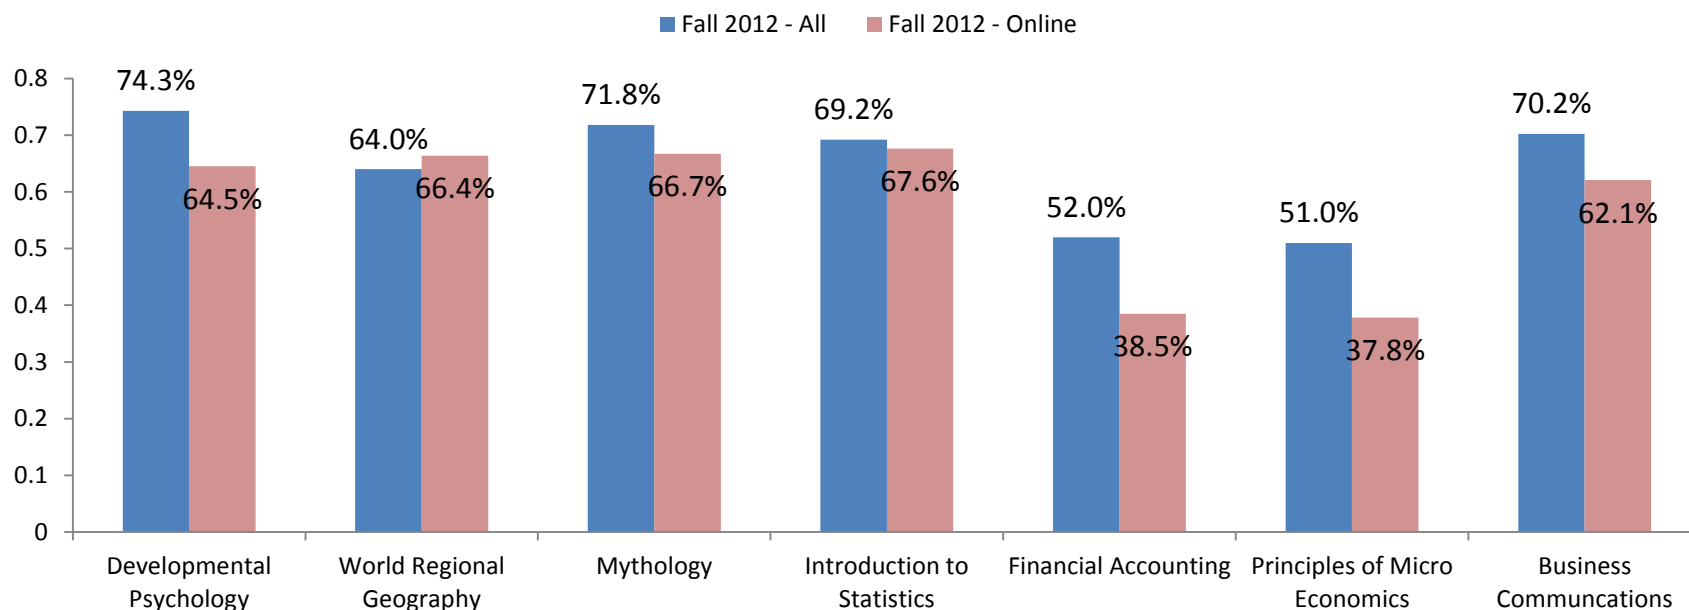

- ✓ Success in College and Life(1003) had an enrollment of 194 for fall of 2012 with a 15.3% change compared to prior year.
- ✓ Roughly 40% of SCL 1001 enrollments were for online sections for fall 2012. Success rates for these students constitute a -9.7% change from 2009.

Student Success Rates – Summary of Large 2000 Level Courses Fall to Fall Comparisons of Students Receiving an A, B, C or S (All Courses with Enrollments >200 for fall 2012 term)

- ✓ 4 of the 8 largest 2000 level courses witnessed increases in their overall student success rates in the last year, including 3 of the 4 largest business division classes.
- ✓ Only 3 of the 8 largest 2000 level courses had increases in student course success rates when comparing fall 2012 rates with those from Fall 2009.

Student Success Rates – Summary of Large 2000 Level Courses with Online Options Comparisons of Students Receiving an A, B, C or S (Fall 2012 – Courses with > 200 Enrolled of which Online >50)

- ✓ Only 1 of 7 large 2000 level courses with significant online options had a higher student success rate than that of overall course success rates in fall 2012.