

Public Speaking
Outcome:
The student will apply practical skills and knowledge necessary to clearly express themselves in an organized and engaging way from any one of a variety of public speaking situations.
Rubric:
Features	3 - Mastering	2 - Developing	1 - Emerging
Content	Clearly organizes the content to provide interest and depth	Partially organizes the content to provide interest and depth	Poorly organizes the content to provide interest and depth
Insight	Clearly delivers original and thoughtful insight about the topic	Partially delivers original and thoughtful insight about the topic	Poorly delivers original and thoughtful insight about the topic
Speaking	Clearly speaks in deliberate, controlled, and fluid sentences and phrases	Primarily speaks in deliberate, controlled, and fluid sentences and phrases, but not on a consistent basis	Speaks in thoughtless, haphazard, or choppy sentences and phrases
Listener's Understanding	Clearly increases the listener's understanding and knowledge of the topic	Somewhat increases the listener's understanding and knowledge of the topic	Insufficiently increases the listener's understanding or knowledge of the topic
Listener's Attention	Speaker successfully incorporates tone and energy to emphasize important ideas and to hold the listener's attention	The tone and energy of the speaker does not adequately capture and maintain the listener's attention	Speaker does not incorporate any attention-getting strategies or attempt to connect the topic to the target audience