THE PRESIDENT
OKLAHOMA CITY COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Dr. Mautra Staley Jones

President

Dr. Mautra Staley Jones began her tenure as Oklahoma City Community College's 11th President on March 1, 2022. Through her extensive academic, executive, and community experience, Dr. Jones has earned her reputation as a thought leader, someone who has advanced and elevated every institution with which she's been associated. Dr. Jones received her BA in Journalism from the University of Oklahoma, an MBA from the University of Phoenix at San Diego, and her Doctorate of Education from Vanderbilt University's Peabody College of Education.

Dr. Jones' leadership is felt throughout Oklahoma and indeed across the United States. She actively serves as a Board Director for BancFirst, the Oklahoma Hall of Fame, Stitch Crew, Oklahoma Watch, Oklahoma Office of Juvenile Affairs, American Mothers, Inc., Oklahoma Philharmonic Society, Civic Center Foundation, and the Leadership Oklahoma City Alumni Association. She is also board advisor for the Greater Oklahoma City Chamber of Commerce. Dr. Jones is a member of Salt and Light Leadership (SALLT) Class IV, Leadership Oklahoma City Class XXIX, MSI Aspiring Leaders program at Rutgers University, VEST Her, Inc., and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. Prior to her tenure at Oklahoma City Community College, Dr. Jones served as the Vice President for Institutional Advancement and External Affairs at historic Langston University, Site Administrator for Langston University Oklahoma City and Executive Director of the Langston University Foundation.

Dr. Jones has been recognized on numerous occasions for her outstanding leadership, character, and both professional and personal achievements. In 2022, Dr. Jones was named as one of The Journal Record's Book-of-Lists Power Players, an honoree for Hundred Magazine and recognized with the J.A. Reed Spirit of the Community Award. In 2021, American Mothers Inc. named her National Mother of the Year and Oklahoma Mother of the Year. She was honored as The Journal Record's Woman of the Year in 2020 and inducted into the publication's distinguished Circle of Excellence. Dr. Jones received the HBCU Philanthropy Advancement Leader Award. In 2018, Perry Publishing and Broadcasting named Dr. Jones its Woman of the Year.

Dr. Jones is married to United States District Judge Bernard M. Jones II, and is the mother of three children, Bernard III, Kennedy, and Brendan.
