AdHoc: Institutional Review Board

The purpose of the IRB is to ensure that all research involving human subjects is conducted in conformance with ethical principles relating to the health, welfare, safety and rights of the participants, and in accordance with policies and regulations established by the United States Department of Health and Human Services. Oklahoma City Community College (OCCC) therefore established this Institutional Review Board. The Institutional Review Board ("IRB") shall evaluate all human subject research as defined by this procedure and 45 CFR Part 46.

MEETING TIME & MEMBERSHIP

Board meets as necessary. Volunteers will be called as needed.

AdHoc: Student Conduct

The Student Conduct Committee serves to uphold the values, policies, and standards of the college community by ensuring a fair, impartial, and educational process for reviewing alleged violations of the Student Code of Conduct. The committee is committed to promoting accountability, personal responsibility, and respect among students, while supporting a safe and inclusive learning environment. Through its actions, the committee aims to foster student development, maintain campus integrity, and reinforce the college's commitment to student success and ethical behavior.

MEETING TIME & MEMBERSHIP

Board meets as necessary. Volunteers will be called as needed.

AdHoc: Grade Appeal

The purpose of the Grade Appeal Committee is to determine the final grade of any student requesting a grade appeal. The committee will be comprised of six (6) faculty members, one from each academic division, not to include the instructor involved in the case, and three (3) students selected by the Vice President for Student Affairs.

MEETING TIME & MEMBERSHIP

When the Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs is in receipt of the student's request for an appeal hearing, the committee shall be activated.
